

The Daynal Order

The Teachers of the Daynal Order work indivisibly with the Melchizedeks to administer the curriculum of Paradise, the lessons of divine love. The Teacher Sons supply the universal Paradise pattern for application by the Melchizedeks to any local sphere. Otherwise, the Teacher Sons' activities range from Paradise to the outermost boundaries of the Grand Universe representing the different personalities of the Paradise Trinity.

Their associate Paradise Sons of the Michael and Avonal orders have their own unique roles. Those of the Michael order have the role of Creators representing our Father to their local creations, and on this world we are most fortunate in knowing our Creator as our human friend, Jesus of Nazareth. Those of the Avonal order represent the Eternal Son and typically will conduct the adjudications of a planet that occur periodically. Upon the success of all planetary visitations, the Teacher Sons of the Daynal Order depend to begin the work leading us in the discovery of the spiritual counterpart of advancing material knowledge and temporal wisdom.

Normally, the Trinity Teacher Sons will inaugurate a spiritual age, but our world has suffered anomalies that have us wobbling rather much as a planet, even so, all look upon this sphere with great interest. While the work of Teacher Sons in the main must be deferred until such time as these irregularities are brought into a state of correction, nonetheless, they gladly work with any who would receive them knowing that correction is underway.

"We who come as elder siblings greet you with deep affection, with high regard, for we behold our Father laboring in the midst of the trials of time. We behold the dignity of character covered by the dust that has been stirred upon this realm waiting to be shaken loose to show forth the shimmer of spirit with which you are embedded whereby our Father gives himself so freely to you. And so, let us begin by being confident that where you are is in a perfect home that is governed and guided by a perfect love whose discovery is conditioned by your relative exposures in time. The development of this image of who you are is a progressive experience throughout the course of ascension."<sup>4</sup>

The Daynal Order & The Daynal Institute

As our Magisterial Son and his staff become known around the world, there will be a tendency for many to surrender to what would be called a spectacle due to the planetary deficit of encounters with terrestrial representatives of our Universe government. The Teacher Sons, being invisible in the course of this incarnation as always, will serve to 're-mind' those who become preoccupied with the sight of a Paradise Son walking upon this world in a human form. The Daynal Institute shares in this task of 're-minding' any who become distracted by the spectacle of one such as our Magisterial Son and his team of Melchizedeks accompanying him. We are here to remind these of the Father of all who remains unseen and yet whose indwelling gift of divine presence invites the human mind to let go of its material hold, its insistence upon 'seeing'.

When many have become satiated with this visible reality, one that is customary upon most worlds, they may turn to the Teacher Sons assisted by the Daynal Institute and rediscover the gift that mortals bring to the larger family of our Universe of Universes, the gift of knowing by faith; a vision not dependent upon material sight; hearing by means that is not defined by the mortal ear; touching in a manner not limited by the body, but extended by our souls to touch all, seen and unseen, with the depth of our desire to honor our Father, to relish his affection and the gift of our own to him and to all our siblings who are gathered now to welcome us home.

"See the Love of God in you, and you will see it everywhere because it is everywhere.....Wanting this only you will have this only, and giving this only, you will be only this."<sup>2</sup>

Stillness

The central practice of making ourselves at home in Paradise where motion is not inherent but volitional.

The Spirit Fragment

The divine spark glows so beautifully beneath the focus of our conscious appraisals, enfolded with rich images, though perhaps dimly viewed at first that we may embellish with the aid of imagination; then infused by Its own subtle influence until that moment the wall of dark silence is breached in tender acceptance of first exposure; finally embracing each other as friends who have reached across the distance long studied and dispersed in the light of love affirmed forever, in this moment.

The First Source

While we experience the vicissitudes of human love, the Source of love divine lives and moves amongst us weaving his way through our patterns of resistance as water among the rocks in a flowing stream whispering ever so quietly and with a gentleness often lost beneath the crashing sound of our mounting waves asking each of us, will you show my love, will you re-present me to your fellows and give yourself the unspeakable joy of feeling me living in and through you, each and all; and drop the weight of your material concerns to rise within and upon the fluid I am and flow with me? Regardless, until then, I will wrap you in the cool refreshment of my love and gently stroke your injured feelings, these striking marks of time etched upon your hard shells I will smooth, and in time, if you allow, I will wear away the weight you hold fast, and then we will run as one.

“One can easily sit still an hour with closed eyes and accomplish nothing, and just as easily give God only an instant, and in that instant join with him completely.”<sup>2</sup>

Books & Archives

“Words can be helpful, particularly for the beginner... Let us not forget, however, that words are but symbols of symbols. They are thus twice removed from reality.”<sup>2</sup>

“There are many who must be reached through words, being as yet unable to hear in silence.”<sup>2</sup>

Books and archives featured by the Daynal Institute to foster intellectual and spiritual growth are the work of human and divine personalities acutely conscious of “the paradoxical necessity of making effective use of thought while at the same time discounting the spiritual utility of all thinking”.<sup>1</sup>

Nordan Symposia

Students who have savored revelatory texts recently given to our world during this time of accelerated change and who would relish the invitation to probe their source within are encouraged to join in the close examination of the Urantia Papers sponsored by the Nordan Symposia. The purpose is to identify questions without any apparent source for answers so as to stimulate contact with the Spirit of Truth active in the minds of all earnest truth seekers and the trusted source of ongoing personal revelation.

“But to some, Melchizedek taught advanced truth, embracing the conduct and organization of the local universe, while to his brilliant disciple Nordan the Kenite and his band of earnest students he taught the truths of the superuniverse and even of Havona.”<sup>1</sup>

Spiritual Education

Genuine education always leads forth treasure from within the student more than directing the mind to external acquisitions, and what is deepest within every person is the presence of God.

“The unspoken desire deep within you, beyond the reach of your conscious mind is the consciousness of God dwelling within you. This desire that you discern in your heart is his desire for you. You cannot speak, for in this place you can only be silent and hear the terms of his affection, feel the cascade of his love poured upon you. You would know this desire best in these moments of stillness.”<sup>3</sup>

The task of the Daynal Institute is the spiritual education of humankind. This work supports many areas of visible manifestation but is not limited to these.

Seminars

The Seminars are forums provided for the study and discussion of recently received revelatory texts two of which are well known and will continue to yield a leavening influence upon the planet. These two texts are A Course in Miracles and The Urantia Book.

Classes

Complementing the study of these two texts are classrooms of the Melchizedek Extension Schools where living dialogue with spiritual teachers of various Ascending and Descending Orders is conducted through mind circuits indigenous to our universe.

Campuses

The residential learning centers comprising this planet's first Magisterial Mission that is unfolding now in various parts of the world will challenge the deepest traditions of our civilization rooted as they are in cosmic isolation. The adjustment ensuing will be profound and will offer rare opportunities for service as human and divine personalities join hand in hand laboring together to foster greater cooperation among the world's people.

“Spirituality becomes at once the indicator of one's nearness to God and the measure of one's usefulness to fellow beings.”<sup>1</sup>
